
TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

CHAPTER 1. Punishment and Its Rationales

- A. Traditional Rationales (Why Punish?)
 - United States v. Blarek*
 - Questions and Comments*
- B. Modes of Punishment (How to Punish?)
 - 1. Imprisonment
 - 2. Supervised Release
 - 3. Fine
 - 4. Forfeiture
 - 5. Special Assessment
 - 6. Death
 - 7. Alternative Punishments
 - United States v. Gementera*
- C. Proportionality (How Much to Punish?)
 - Ewing v. California*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - United States v. Angelos*
- D. Collateral Effects of Punishment
 - 1. Public Sanctions
 - 2. Private Sanctions and Civil Liability
- E. The Role of Victims
 - 1. Victims and the Rationales for Punishment
 - 2. Community-Based Sanctions
 - People v. Mooney*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 3. Victim Compensation
- F. Punishment vs. Sanction vs. Measure (What Is Punishment?)
 - Kansas v. Hendricks*
 - Questions and Comments*
- G. The Nature of Crime (What to Punish?)
 - Stanley v. Georgia*
 - State v. Saiez*
 - Questions and Comments*
- H. The Landscape of Crime (What Is Punishable?)

CHAPTER 2. The Process of Crime and Punishment

- A. An Overview of Criminal Procedure
- B. Plea Bargaining
- C. Procedural Origins of Substantive Issues
- D. Discretion

E. The Principle of Legality (Nulla poena sine lege)

Questions and Comments

1. Legislativity

Commonwealth v. KellerMeadows v. StateQuestions and CommentsMistretta v. United States

2. Lenity

Johnson v. StateQuestions and Comments

3. Specificity

People v. BrightPeople v. NelsonQuestions and CommentsChicago v. MoralesState v. Maldonado

4. Prospectivity

Rogers v. TennesseeQuestions and Comments

5. Publicity

United States v. CassonQuestions and Comments

F. Jurisdiction

1. The Territorial Principle

Questions and Comments

2. The Personality Principle

a. Active Personality (Nationality)

b. Passive Personality

United States v. KingUnited States v. LaraQuestions and Comments

3. The Protective Principle

United States v. RodriguezQuestions and Comments

4. The Universal Principle

*Questions and CommentsCHAPTER 3. The Basic Structure of American Criminal Law

A. The Model Penal Code

B. The Building Blocks of Criminal Liability

*Questions and Comments*C. An Illustration: *Dudley & StephensThe Queen v. Dudley and StephensQuestions and CommentsCHAPTER 4. Criminal Conduct (Objective Offense Elements)

A. Introduction: Offense Elements in Context

1. Objective Elements vs. Subjective Elements

2. Types of Offense Elements (Model Penal Code)

-
- 3. Offense Elements Distinguished
 - a. Offense Elements vs. Defense Elements
 - (i) Burdens of Proof
Patterson v. New York
Questions and Comments
 - (ii) Presumptions
People v. Leyva
Questions and Comments
 - b. Offense Elements vs. Sentencing Factors
Questions and Comments
 - B. Acts
 - 1. Acts vs. Thoughts
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Act vs. Status
People v. Davis
Pottinger v. City of Miami
Questions and Comments
 - 3. Voluntary vs. Involuntary Acts
State v. Tippetts
United States v. Tucker
Questions and Comments
 - C. Omissions
 - 1. Duties
State v. Miranda
State ex rel. Kuntz v. Montana Thirteenth Judicial District
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Omissions vs. Commissions
Vacco v. Quill
Questions and Comments
 - D. Possession
Questions and Comments
 - 1. Simple vs. Compound Possession
People v. Lee
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Actual vs. Constructive Possession
People v. Rivera
People v. Valot
Questions and Comments
 - 3. “Innocent” Possession and Other Defenses
People v. E.C.
Questions and Comments
- CHAPTER 5. Mental State (Subjective Offense Elements)
- A. Voluntariness vs. Mental States
In the Matter of Ronnie L.
Questions and Comments
 - B. The Model Penal Code Scheme in Context
Queen v. Tolson
Questions and Comments
 - C. Statutory Interpretation: What Mens Rea Is Required (If Any)?
People v. Ryan
State v. Lozier
Questions and Comments

- D. Ambiguities in the Model Penal Code's Mens Rea Scheme
 - 1. Purpose vs. Knowledge
 - a. Conscious Object vs. Awareness
People v. Steinberg
Questions and Comments
 - b. Conditional Purpose
Holloway v. United States
Questions and Comments
 - c. Purpose vs. Motive
State v. Wyant
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Knowledge vs. Recklessness
 - a. Certainty vs. Likelihood People v. Sanchez
Questions and Comments
 - b. Wilfulness
 - (i) Wilful Ignorance and Conscious Avoidance
United States v. Jewell
Questions and Comments
 - (ii) Wilfulness and Knowledge of Illegality
People v. Coe
Questions and Comments
 - 3. Recklessness vs. Negligence
People v. Strong
Commonwealth v. Pierce
Questions and Comments
 - 4. Negligence vs. Strict Liability
Morissette v. United States
State v. Wingate
Questions and Comments
Regina v. Prince
State v. Guest
- E. Concurrence
Regina v. Faulkner
R. v. Cunningham
Palani Goundan v. Emperor
Thabo Meli v. Regina
Questions and Comments
- F. Mistake
 - 1. Introduction
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Mistakes of Governing Law
 - a. The Traditional Principle: Ignorance Is No Excuse, Nor Is Culpable Ignorance or Subjective Awareness a Presumptive Element of Offenses
United States v. Baker
Commonwealth v. Doane
Questions and Comments
 - b. Limitations on the Traditional Principle: Due Process
Lambert v. California
State v. Leavitt
Questions and Comments
 - c. Limitations on the Traditional Principle: Statutory Interpretation
Cheek v. United States
Questions and Comments

- d. Limitations on the Traditional Principle: Good Faith Reliance on Official Pronouncements
 - Hopkins v. State*
 - Cox v. Louisiana*
 - People v. Marrero*
 - Questions and Comments*
- e. Limitations on the Traditional Principle: Cultural Defenses
 - United States v. Tomono*
 - Questions and Comments*
- 3. Mistakes of Non-Governing Law
 - a. Mistakes of Non-Governing Law Treated like Mistakes of Governing Law
 - State v. Woods*
 - b. Mistakes of Non-Governing Law Treated like Cognate Mistakes of Fact
 - People v. Bray*
 - Questions and Comments*
- G. Intoxication
 - People v. Walker*
 - State v. Cameron*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - People v. Ressler*

CHAPTER 6. Criminal Harm: Causation and Attempt

- A. The General Relevance—and Definition—of Harm
 - Commonwealth v. Slaney*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - United States v. Walters*
- B. Causation
 - 1. The Basic Structure of Causation Inquiries: Actual and Proximate Cause
 - Robertson v. Commonwealth*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - State v. Maldonado*
 - 2. Cause-in-Fact
 - Commonwealth v. Atencio*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 3. Proximate Cause
 - a. Victim Action and Traits
 - (i) Subsequent Victim Intervention: Deliberate Victim Self-Destruction
 - People v. Campbell*
 - People v. Kevorkian*
 - State v. Bauer*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - (ii) Subsequent Victim Intervention: Risk-Taking
 - People v. Kern*
 - Commonwealth v. Root*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - (iii) Prior Victim Vulnerability
 - State v. Frazier*
 - People v. Stamp*
 - Questions and Comments*

- b. Third Party Intervention
 - (i) Medical Interveners
 - Williams v. State*
 - People v. Stewart*
 - State v. Shabazz*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - (ii) Other Third Party Intervention
 - People v. Kibbe*
 - People v. Warner–Lambert Co.*
 - People v. Kern*
 - Questions and Comments*
- C. Attempt
 - 1. Grading
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 2. Act
 - a. Distinguishing Non-punishable Preparation from Punishable Attempts
 - (i) Some Traditional Tests Distinguishing Preparation From Attempt
 - King v. Barker*
 - People v. Murray*
 - Commonwealth v. Kennedy*
 - Commonwealth v. Peaslee*
 - McQuirter v. State*
 - Tremaine v. State*
 - (ii) “Substantial Steps” and the Model Penal Code Approach
 - Commonwealth v. Donton*
 - People v. Hawkins*
 - United States v. Ramos–Palomino*
 - United States v. Presto*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - Problem*
 - b. Renunciation (Abandonment)
 - (i) (Why) Should Abandonment Be a Defense?
 - People v. Staples*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - (ii) Is the Renunciation “Voluntary” and “Complete”?
 - LeBarron v. State*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - c. Impossibility
 - People v. Dlugash*
 - Commonwealth v. Henley*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - People v. Thousand*
 - United States v. Oviedo*
 - 3. Mental State
 - a. Mental State With Respect to Result and Conduct
 - Smallwood v. State*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - a. Attendant Circumstances
 - United States v. Langley*
 - Commonwealth v. Dunne*
 - Questions and Comments*

CHAPTER 7. Justification and Excuse

- A. Introduction
 - United States v. Lopez*
 - Spunaugle v. State*
 - State v. Leidholm*
 - Questions and Comments*
- B. Self-Defense
 - 1. Introduction
 - Martin v. Ohio*
 - People v. McManus*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 2. Imminence vs. Immediacy
 - State v. Buggs*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 3. Proportionality
 - a. Deadly vs. Nondeadly Force
 - People v. Bradley*
 - b. Retreat
 - Commonwealth v. Toon*
 - c. Initial Aggressor
 - Rowe v. United States*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 4. Self-Defense and Property Interests
 - a. Property as the Object of the Criminal Conduct to Be Justified
 - Boget v. State*
 - b. Property as the Interest to Be Protected
 - People v. Petronio*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 5. Reasonableness and Mistake
 - State v. Kelly*
 - People v. Goetz*
 - Questions and Comments*
- C. Necessity
 - The Queen v. Dudley and Stephens*
 - People v. Craig*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - People v. Maher*
 - Problem*
- D. Law Enforcement, Public Duty, and Special Responsibility
 - Tennessee v. Garner*
 - People v. Peña*
 - Questions and Comments*
- E. Consent
 - 1. Element-Negating Defense vs. Justification vs. Excuse
 - State v. George*
 - People v. Schacker*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - Regina v. Brown*
 - 2. Constitutional Limitations
 - Lawrence v. Texas*
 - Commonwealth v. Bonadio*
 - Questions and Comments*
- F. Duress
 - United States v. Bailey*
 - State v. Toscano*
 - Questions and Comments*

- G. Entrapment
People v. Calvano
Jacobson v. United States
Questions and Comments
- H. Mental Disease or Defect (Insanity and Immaturity)
M’Naghten’s Case
People v. Schmidt
United States v. Brawner
Questions and Comments

CHAPTER 8. Group Criminality: Complicity, Conspiracy, RICO, and Corporate Liability

- A. Complicity
 - 1. Introduction
Questions and Comments
Taylor v. Commonwealth
People v. Brooks
 - 2. Actus Reus
 - a. Varieties of Imputation
Commonwealth v. Tavares
 - b. Causation and Attempted Complicity
State v. Tally
 - c. Reciprocal Conduct
People v. Manini
Questions and Comments
Problem
 - 3. Mens Rea
 - a. Purpose vs. Knowledge to Facilitate or Encourage Proscribed Conduct
United States v. Peoni
Backun v. United States
 - b. Criminal Facilitation Statutes
People v. Gordon
Questions and Comments
People v. Adams
 - c. Complicity in Nonintentional Result Crimes?
People v. Flayhart
 - d. “Shared Intent” and Stings
United States v. Washington
Questions and Comments
Problem
- B. Conspiracy
 - 1. Introduction
Pinkerton v. United States
Callanan v. United States
Questions and Comments
 - 2. Conspiracy vs. Complicity: The Pinkerton Rule
Pinkerton v. United States
People v. McGee
Questions and Comments
United States v. Walls
United States v. Superior Growers Supply
 - 3. Agreement
People v. Berkowitz
Questions and Comments
 - 4. Solicitation
Benson v. People
People v. Lubow

-
- Questions and Comments*
- C. RICO
 - United States v. Elliott*
 - People v. Capaldo*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - D. Corporate Liability
 - 1. Introduction
 - N.Y. Central & Hudson River Railroad Co. v. United States*
 - State v. Chapman Dodge Center*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 2. Respondeat Superior
 - a. Imputation from Individual to Corporation
 - Commonwealth v. Penn Valley Resorts*
 - United States v. Bank of New England*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - b. Imputation from Individual to Individual
 - United States v. Dotterweich*
 - United States v. Park*
 - Commonwealth v. Koczwar*
 - Questions and Comments*
- CHAPTER 9. Rape
- A. Introduction
 - 1. A Survivor’s Experience
 - 2. The Dimensions of the Problem of Sexual Violence
 - 3. An Introduction to the Legal Issues
 - State v. Rusk*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - B. Substantive Issues: The Proscribed Act
 - 1. Varieties of “Coercive” Sex
 - a. Force or Fear of Violence vs. Nonconsensual Sex vs Sex Without Affirmative Consent
 - Commonwealth v. Berkowitz*
 - State in the Interest of M.T.S.*
 - b. Non-Violent Threats and the Threat/Offer Line
 - Commonwealth v. Mlinarich*
 - c. Problems of Application: Applying Existing Law, Thinking about “Ideal” Law and Considering Alternatives to the Use of the Criminal Sanction
 - Problem*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - People v. Liberta*
 - 2. Fraud
 - Boro v. People*
 - United States v. Hughes*
 - Questions and Comments*
 - 3. Incapacity to Consent
 - a. Traditional Law on Intoxication
 - McKinney v. State*
 - b. Norms that Would Define Rape or Impermissible Sexual Conduct More Inclusively
 - Questions and Comments*
 - People v. Whidden*
 - C. Substantive Issues: Mental State
 - 1. Decisions Requiring Subjective Awareness by the Defendant
 - Regina v. Morgan*
 - Reynolds v. State*

2. Decisions Permitting Conviction of Defendants Who Make Unreasonable Mistakes of Fact
People v. Williams
3. Strict Liability?
Commonwealth v. Lopez
Questions and Comments
- D. Notes on Evidence Issues
 1. Traditional Law and Attitudes Suspicious of the Complainant's Testimony
Davis v. State
State v. Wood
 2. Reform: Prompt Report and Corroboration
 3. Reform: Rape Shield Laws
People v. Jovanovic
Questions and Comments

CHAPTER 10. Homicide

- A. Varieties of Homicide
 1. Traditional Scheme (California Penal Code)
 2. Model Penal Code
 3. New York Penal Law
Questions and Comments
- B. Murder
 1. First Degree vs. Second Degree Murder
Watson v. United States
State v. Thompson
Questions and Comments
 2. Intentional vs. Depraved Indifference Murder
Robinson v. State
Questions and Comments
 3. Felony Murder
 - a. Introduction
 - b. Predicate Felonies
People v. Burroughs
Questions and Comments
People v. Davis
 - c. Merger
People v. Wilson
Questions and Comments
Problem
 - d. Causation and "Agency"
People v. Lowery
People v. Hernandez
Questions and Comments
 - e. Group Liability
Enmund v. Florida
Questions and Comments
 4. Capital Murder
Gregg v. Georgia
Questions and Comments
- C. Manslaughter
 1. Murder vs. Involuntary Manslaughter
Commonwealth v. Malone
Questions and Comments
 2. Voluntary Manslaughter (Provocation/Extreme Emotional Disturbance)
 - a. Introduction

- Questions and Comments*
- b. Historical Categorical Rules and the Open-Ended Model
 Penal Code System
- (i) Precipitating Incidents
Girouard v. State
People v. Shelton
People v. Casassa
- (ii) “Cooling off”: A Bar to the Defense, a Bar Absent
 “Rekindling”, a “Factor” to be Weighed
People v. Ashland
In re Fraley
State v. Flory
People v. Patterson
 People v. Berry
- (iii) Must the Defendant (intend to) Kill the “Source” of the “Provocation” or “Emotional Disturbance”?
State v. Follin
State v. United States
Questions and Comments
- c. The Sub-Group Question: Would the Precipitating Incident
 Have Agitated People (Generally) or People More Precisely like the Defendant?
Keenan v. Commonwealth
State v. Felton
Questions and Comments
 Problem
- D. Negligent Homicide
People v. Beiter
Questions and Comments
People v. Haney

CHAPTER 11. White Collar Crimes: Larceny, Mail Fraud, Money Laundering

- A. Larceny
People v. Olivo
People v. Norman
Questions and Comments
People v. Alamo
People v. Chesler
Peolpe v. Reid
- B. Mail Fraud
1. Scope and Relation to Larceny
United States v. Handakas
Questions and Comments
2. The Protected Interest and Justifications for Federal Jurisdiction
Schmuck v. United States
Questions and Comments
United States v. Gil
- C. Money Laundering
United States v. Campbell
Questions and Comments
United States v. Ferguson